

TEST TECHNICIAN – M / F

Location :	DUDELANGE - LUXEMBOURG
Diploma :	Technician degree in mechanics or plastics
Experience :	Minimum of 2 years work experience gained in an industrial environment
Type of contract :	Full-Time / Regular
Remuneration :	According to profile

Description :

A company specializing in leading materials and injection molding and services for the plastics industry is looking for the new team in charge of its « Specialty Closure » segment, two Technician Tests M/F.

Responsibilities :

In this position, you will be responsible to independently execute injection mold sampling in the Test Room Department. You will report to the Team Leader Test Room of Specialty Packaging.

- Prepare molds for installation in the injection molding machine (up to 3 components)
- Condition resin and master batch pellets and liquid properly
- Able to connect hydraulics, pneumatic & electrical devices (turntable, easy cube, inn old closing, HR controller etc)
- Execute a professional and standardized test plan with associated value-added documentation
- Operate injection molding machines and all upstream and downstream equipment (hopper loader, boxing systems, conveyor, visual inspection systems)
- Analyze inspection reports in cooperation with the Quality Lab
- You will in addition interact with different engineering teams (AE, Mold engineering etc) to support root cause analysis during the mold debugging phase
- Operate mold qualification runs under customer presence
- Maintain tidiness of Test Room area (injection molding machines, auxiliaries and test equipment)

Qualifications :

- The ideal candidate possesses a technician degree in mechanics or plastics
- Good experience of injection molding technology, tools and machines is required
- Root cause analysis and problem solving oriented personality is mandatory
- Minimum of 2 years work experience gained in an industrial environment
- We are seeking individuals with self-initiative, high personal integrity and high motivation, who enjoy working in a team
- Knowledge of Husky products, tools, standards, processes & technology is an advantage
- English is mandatory / additional languages is an as set

To apply, we thank you to send us your application to the following email address: lutme-plastinnov-contact@univ-lorraine.fr